Wilmington Train Station Dedication 3/19 Open House – On Saturday, March 19, from noon until 3 PM, join representatives from the State of Delaware, City of Wilmington, the Delaware Congressional Delegation, the Friends of Furness Railroad District, Delaware Transit Corporation and Amtrak for an Open House to celebrate the reopening and dedication of the historic Wilmington Train Station. In honor of long-time Amtrak rider, strong advocate of passenger rail, and current Vice President of the United States Joe Biden, the renovated station will be dedicated as the Joseph R. Biden, Jr., Railroad Station. Then there will be a ribbon cutting ceremony for the new permanent exhibit, Wilmington's Railroad Heritage, which is sponsored by The Friends of the Furness Railroad District. Afterwards there will also be tours of the antique waiting rooms, along with Amtrak and SEPTA train equipment. The Wilmington Children's Chorus will be providing the musical entertainment. Free food and refreshments will be available. Free parking at the Wilmington Station is available at the Riverfront Parking Deck and in the surface parking lot on French Street along the riverfront.
